The law presumes you are innocent of this charge until the City proves you guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. The law also guarantees you the right to consult your attorney, to request a trial, to remain silent at trial or during any court proceedings, to cross-examine adverse witnesses, to subpoena witnesses for your defense, and even to disqualify the Judge if you believe he is bias against you. These rights can't be taken from you – you can only lose them by pleading “guilty”. If you desire to plead “not guilty”, it will be necessary for you to appear in Municipal Court at the date and time indicated on your ticket, so that a trial can be scheduled.
